

Our Story

Illuminated Women Rising was born in the heart of a community craving connection and empowerment. Our mission? To light a path for women from all walks of life as they journey toward self-discovery, healing, and empowerment.

Our Beginnings: It all started with a vision to create a space where women could feel seen, heard, and supported. Our founder, Jeannine Rivers, understood personally the transformative power of hope and the importance of nurturing faith. Her experiences, both challenging and enlightening, laid the foundation for what would become a beacon of support for countless women.

Our Journey: Each step of our journey has been guided by the principle that every woman possesses an inner light that, when nurtured, can lead to profound personal and collective transformation. We've tailored our resources to meet women's unique needs and challenges, from workshops to one-on-one coaching sessions and community gatherings to digital platforms.

Our Impact: The stories of change are not just numerous; they are transformative. Women who once felt overshadowed by despair now stand boldly in the light of their own strength. Families have been not just changed, but transformed, relationships not just mended, but strengthened, and individual paths to success have been not just carved out, but paved through the support and solidarity found within our community.

Our Future: As we look to the future, our commitment remains unwavering. We continue to expand our reach, enhance our programs, and refine our approaches to meet the evolving needs of our members. The journey of "Illuminated Women Rising" is never static—it's a dynamic, ongoing quest to empower, educate, and elevate.
